Introductory Remarks

NO GENEALOGY of the descendants of Rev. Ralph Wheelock, ancestor of nearly all New England Wheelocks, has ever been published, so far as the writer of this book knows. There are published accounts of various branches of the family, printed for small groups, while various town histories, gazetteers, books of biography, and similar publications, contain sketches of certain lines of the family. The publication of this book of the Calais, Vermont, Wheelocks will add one more to that already long list.

The history of the Wheelock family, previous to its arrival in America, is rather obscure; yet from the few facts gathered we are led to believe that the family has been one of the highest respectability, both in this country and abroad. Our common ancestor, Rev. Ralph Wheelock, is supposed to have belonged among the various Wheelock families which had lived in Shropshire, England, very close to the Welsh border, which may account for the New England Wheelocks being referred to at times as "Welshmen." Perhaps they were of that ancient and honorable stock, but to prove the direct ancestral line of our common ancestor for generations previous to the arrival in New England, is beyond the scope of this book. They were worthy people anyway, whether Welsh, Anglo-Saxon or Norman, so let the matter rest with that statement.

As a brief sketch of the Rev. Ralph will appear in the genealogy of the early generations of the family, only a few words may be said here of a general nature. The notable characteristic of the family is their propensity for teaching. It is doubtful if any other early Puritan immigrant to New England has produced such a line of teachers as did Rev. Ralph. He was a teacher himself, though trained for the ministry, and his descendants for generations have followed that honorable calling. Another of the family characteristics is to be somewhat clannish, and this tendency has been of inestimable help in compiling this genealogy. As a rule, the Wheelocks have clung together in family groups better than most families, and when migrations did take place (as they were bound to do) the migrations were generally by a group of families closely allied by ties of blood. This was the case with our Calais, Vt., Wheelocks, when five of them from Charlton, Mass., early began the settlement of this town.

The Town of Calais, Vermont

This town was chartered by the state of Vermont in 1781 to a group of sixty associates, headed by Col. Jacob Davis of Charlton, Mass., and in this list of associates we find these names: David Wheelock, Eli Wheelock and Peter Wheelock. The survey of the first and second division of lots in Calais was not completed until 1786, and the following year the first prospectors arrived, and those prospectors included Asa, Abijah and Peter Wheelock. They spent the summers of 1787 and 1788 in clearing land, erecting log houses and making such preparations for settlement as they could. In 1789 the first settlers of the town arrived, and included the three above-named Wheelocks, as far as we can learn, although to prove Asa Wheelock to have been one of them to arrive the first year of settlement has thus far been beyond our ability—but he was here, with his family, at a very early date at least. Later, or in 1797, Gideon Wheelock and wife arrived, to become life-long residents, and still later Mrs. Daggett, a widow, and sister to Asa and Peter Wheelock, also came to Calais; but her subsequent history is not well known. These five were the progenitors of the Wheelock family in Calais, and their genealogies follow, in so far as we have been able to learn of them.

Our Wheelocks were a prolific race, and their descendants are numerous to this day, but in the last 150 years many have left the town to seek their livelihood elsewhere, and in many cases have become lost to us with the passing of time. It has been our object to perpetuate the family records of those who remained in or about the town of Calais, and of those families which still maintain contact with their kindred in the old town.

The Wheelock Family Association

No one deserves more credit for the formation of our family association than the late Alma Davis Leonard, great-granddaughter of Abijah Wheelock. After her retirement from a long career as school teacher in Calais and surrounding towns, she devoted much of her time to the accumulation of historical and genealogical material concerning all the old families of Calais, which of course included the Wheelocks. In 1930, principally under her management, a plan was formed to mark suitably the site of Abijah Wheelock's first homestead in Calais. A fund was collected, a bronze marker, appropriately inscribed, was secured, and the descendants of Abijah Wheelock, with anyone else who might be interested, invited to be present at the unveiling, which was done under the most favorable weather conditions, at the place where Mr. Wheelock had his original log house, near the present village of Kent's Corner. A vast crowd, for a small town, assembled, composed of Wheelocks and others, and everybody apparently had a good time. The marker was unveiled by two youngsters, Raymond Wheelock and Betty Jean Jackman; remarks were made by various speakers; an original poem by Walter J. Coates was read by the author; an historical paper dealing with the career of Abijah Wheelock was read by the writer of this book. So much interest was manifested that it was decided to form a Wheelock Family Association, to be composed of the descendants of the five Wheelock pioneers, with their husbands and wives—and this was accordingly done. Since that time annual reunions or picnics of the Association have been held at some favorable place in Calais, and the various branches of the family have become better acquainted with each other. Various sites where Wheelocks had their early homes have been used as picnic grounds; the supposed grave of Asa Wheelock, Revolutionary soldier, has been marked, in cooperation with the Daughters of the Amer. Revolution; a pageant under direction of Nora Mower Gallagher was presented in 1934, showing episodes from the early history of Calais, probably the most interesting and spectacular event ever enacted in town; plays taken from the works of the late Rowland Robinson have been enacted under the direction of Maude Wheeler Pierce, both at the Wheelock picnics and at Montpelier and Burlington, by a group of players, mostly from the membership in the Wheelock Association. We take pride in stating that our Association has been successful. The following genealogies of the Calais Wheelocks would probably never have been printed but for the interest shown by the members of the family through this Association.

The Association is deeply grateful to several people of Calais, not members of our family, who have aided us at the times of our reunions. I would particularly mention Mr. Dell B. Dwinell and Mr. Porter Colby who gave of their time and talents to promote the plays given by the Wheelock Players; Mr. Ernest Ide who loaned his yoke of oxen (a rarity these days) for our pageant; Mr A. Atwater Kent and Mr. John Graham who were of so much assistance at the time of the erection of the Wheelock marker in 1930, and also to Dr. Wallace Muir for most excellent photographic work; and to all the good people of Calais and vicinity who have taken such interest in our family reunions. The Wheelock picnic is "Old Home Day" in Calais.

Nothing is to be gained by offering apologies for the imperfections of the following family records. No genealogy can ever be complete in the true sense of the word, as there always remains something more that could or should have been written. As to errors, they are bound to occur, with all the copying that has to be done to bring such a work into shape for the printer. Alma Leonard, who assembled some of this material, used to claim that she knew instances in Calais where, a child being born, the family made due record of the event in the family bible. Later an official record was made in the town clerk's office. And still later, when the party died of old age or otherwise, the family erected a gravestone upon which also appeared the date of birth, and yet from these three supposedly authentic sources of genealogical information, no two of the three records were alike! From this instance it will be readily seen that we may have erred in some of our dates.

The height of genealogical imperfection is to give a party the wrong spouse. We hope we have not done that, yet it has been done by far more learned genealogists than this humble writer. These records have been assembled over a long period of time, and in many present-day families changes have taken place since the records were made, of which changes "the deponent knoweth not"; yet it is hoped that the following genealogical account of the Calais, Vermont, Wheelock family, male and female lines, will be of interest to present day, as well as to future, members of the family.

The usual genealogical abbreviations are used in this work, as b. for born; bapt. for baptized; m. for married; m. int. for marriage intentions; d. for died; ch. for children; dau. for daughter; s. for son; etc.

Ralph Wheelock

RALPH WHEELOCK was born, probably in Shropshire, England, about the year 1600. He was graduated from the University of Cambridge with the degree of A. B. in 1626, and received the degree A. M. in 1631. He was a preacher, dissenting from the doctrines of the Established Church of England, and supporting the then unpopular doctrine of Puritanism. He, with his wife Rebecca, and one or two children, came to New England about the year 1637, locating first in Watertown, Mass., where they lived for a short time. About the time of their arrival at Watertown a plan was made for the establishment of a new settlement further up the Charles river, and Mr. Wheelock joined with others in carrying out that plan, thus we find him in Dedham (then called Contentment) the following year. He was made freeman there in 1639.

The town of Dedham boasts of having established the "first free school in America," and although the early records of that school no longer exist, it is generally supposed that Ralph Wheelock was the schoolmaster.

In 1650 Dedham, having become quite populous, it was decided to make a new settlement still further up the Charles river, the place to be called New Dedham, and Mr. Wheelock was the prime mover in this undertaking. The new town thus founded is now the town of Medfield, Mass. Mr. Wheelock was selectman there in 1651, and for several years thereafter, and was also representative to the Great and General Court for several years.

In 1655 a school was established in Medfield, and Mr. Wheelock became the schoolmaster, a position he held for many years, and in work that appears to have been to his liking. Certainly no other was better qualified for the work.

Although he was educated for the ministry, and at times occupied the pulpit in his own and adjoining towns, it is not known that he ever held a regular pastorate, apparently preferring to devote his time and talents to the education of the young, a trait that has been handed down through a long line of schoolteacher descendants to the present day.

REBECCA, wife of Ralph Wheelock, died in Medfield Jan. 1, 1680/1. He died there Jan. 11, 1684. His will, on file in Suffolk County Probate Office (file 1339), a copy of which is in Book 6, p. 454, mentions his four sons, Gershom, Benjamin, Samuel and Eleazer, also his two sons-in-law, Increase Ward and Joseph Warren, and a grandchild, Rebecca Craft. He requests his "much respected Brother-in-law, George Barbur" to act as overseer, and appoints Samuel Wheelock, his son, as executor. Children:

REBECCA, probably born in England. Married, June 7, 1654, John Crafts of Roxbury. They left issue.

1: GERSHOM, perhaps born in England. Married, May 18, 1658, Hannah Stodder, dau. of John, of Hingham. He died in Medfield Nov. 28, 1684, where five of his children are of record. His progeny has been numerous, living principally in Shrewsbury and Lancaster, Mass., until Revolutionary times, after which they spread to all parts of the country. The Wheelocks of Cavendish and Eden, Vt., descend from Gershom.

MARY, b. Married Jan. 28, 1663 Joseph Mills, and lived in Shrewsbury. Mr. Wheelock makes no mention of her or her children in his will.

2: BENJAMIN, b. October 8, 1639; m. Elizabeth Bullen. (2) Elizabeth Jewett

3: SAMUEL, b. Jy 22, 1642; m. Sarah Kendrick. He was executor of his father's will, and continued to live at the old Wheelock homestead in Medfield. He died Oct. 23, 1698, leaving a will bequeathing his estate to his widow Sarah, and daughters Sarah and Mehitable. He left no male issue.

PEREGRINA, b. m. Oct. 26, 1669, John Warfield. She died 1671.

RECORD, b. Oct. 15, 1644; m. Oct. 3, 1672, Increase Ward of Shrewsbury.

EXPERIENCE, b. ca. 1648; m. May 20, 1668, Joseph Warren.

4: ELEAZER, b. May 3, 1654, in Medfield; m. in Rehoboth, Mass., Apr. 17, 1678, Elizabeth Fuller, who is believed to have been first married to Nehemiah Sabin of Rehoboth, who was killed by the Indians in June 1676. Her Sabin children were brought up in the Eleazer Wheelock family. Elizabeth, wife of Eleazer Wheelock, d. in Mendon, Mass., Jan. 11, 1689. He married (2) Mary Chenery, who was born about 1662, and died in Medfield Oct. 23, 1732. He died in Medfield May 24, 1730/1, leaving a will (in Suffolk Co. Probate Office, file 6086) which mentions wife Mary; son Ralph of Windham; dau. Rebecca Adams; g.-dau. Esther Wales; g.-dau. Elizabeth Holbrook; g.-children Mary Lawrence, Daniel Lawrence and Esther Lawrence, children of his daughter Mary; g.-dau. Elizabeth, daughter of son Ralph; son Ephraim; and g.-son Eleazer, son of Ephraim.

Among the things willed to son Ralph are: "The Great Bible, The Annotations, The Concordance, The Dictionary, called Mr. Wilson's Dictionary, Mr. Perkins' works in folio, and Mr. Baxter's works." This list of books gives us an idea of the type to which the Wheelocks belonged, as but few of the early Puritans owned books of any kind, even a bible.

After the death of Samuel Wheelock, his brother Eleazer Wheelock lived at the old Wheelock homestead in Medfield, previous to which he had lived in Mendon. Of his two sons, Ralph and Ephraim, Ralph lived in Windham, Conn., and was the ancestor of a notable line of educators, including Dr. Eleazer Wheelock, founder and first president of Dartmouth College. Son Ephraim continued in Medfield, and his descendants later lived in Sturbridge, Westborough, Sherborn and other towns of Massachusetts.

WHEELOCK

BENJAMIN (Ralph): born Oct. 8, 1639; married in Medfield, Mass., May 21, 1668, Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Morse) Bullen. Mendon printed vitals show the death of Elizabeth, wife of Benjamin Wheelock, as Oct. 22, 1689, but there appears to be some doubt as to the accuracy of that record, since Benjamin and Elizabeth had children born in Mendon after that date. Possibly Benjamin Wheelock had a second wife, also named Elizabeth, of whom we know nothing.

Benjamin Wheelock was one of the proprietors of the town of Mendon, Mass., and his name appears on the founders' monument now standing on "Mendon's Sacred Ground", a park where the early settlement was made. He was the owner of an early corn mill in Mendon, and in 1713 made over the mill privilege to his sons Benjamin and Obediah. The death of Benjamin Wheelock is not shown in Mendon records, neither has any record been found of the settlement of his estate.

His will allowed Nov. 4, 1760, is on file in Worcester Co. Probate Office under file 63773. Two of his grandsons went to Nova Scotia, where his progeny became numerous.

(24) BENJAMIN (Benjamin, Ralph): born in Medfield Mass., Dec. 12, 1678; married in Mendon Dec. 9, 1700, Huldah, daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth (French) Thayer, and gr.-daughter of Ferdinando Thayer whose name leads all the others as the founder of Mendon, as shown on the "Founders' Monument" now standing on the "Sacred Ground." Huldah was born in Mendon Mar. 11, 1682, and died there July 7,1739. He married, second, at Mendon, Aug. 21, 1740, Mrs. Rebecca Kinney. Benjamin Wheelock died at Mendon Sept. 13, 1746, in his 67th year, leaving a will, now in Worcester Probate Office under file 63618, in which he leaves bequests to wife Rebecca; son Benjamin of Mendon, lands; son Daniel of Uxbridge, land from Colony line; son Jonathan, money; son Paul, money; son David, money; son Silas, land on east side of Caleb's Hill, Mendon; son Peter, land; and also mentions grandchildren, children of daughter Mary, deceased; children of Huldah, wife of Thomas Rich; grandson Seth Sanford, and granddaughter Mary Sanford.

243: Daniel, b. Dec. 20, 1707; m. Mar. 30, 1732, Deborah Darling. His homestead in Mendon was, after a relocation of the colony line, found to be in Gloucester, R. I.

(245) JONATHAN (Benjamin, Benjamin, Ralph): born in Mendon, Mass., July 21, 1713; m. Mar. 22, 1735, Martha Wight of Bellingham, Mass. They located in that part of the "County Gore" later annexed to the town of Charlton, Mass, where they lived the remainder of their lives. She died Aug. 3, 1764, and he died July 26, 1783. Doubtless they are buried in the old cemetery at N. Charlton, but there are no gravestones to show for it. His will is dated June 10, 1783, and was filed for probate Aug. 14, 1783. In this will he calls himself "gentleman" and mentions his sons Asa, Peter, and daughter Azubah, as well as children of his daughter Huldah Town.

Mrs. Martha (Wight) Wheelock kept a private family record, which was brought to Calais by son Peter, and continued by him. A copy of this record was made for Peter's daughter, Lucinda Gove, which is still owned by the Misses Bliss of Montpelier, who kindly had a photostat made for the writer of this book.

Children:

2451: Rhoda, b. Nov. 14,1736; m. in Leicester, Mass. Apr. 14, 1757, Abiathar Vinton. She died in the "great sickness" July 20, 1759, and her son Samuel on July 12, 1759.

2452: Jonathan, b. Apr. 9, 1739; d. July 8, 1756.

2457: Peter, b. Feb. 16, 1749/50; m. thrice (continued as No. 7).

: Marcy, b. Apr. 24, 1752; d. July 26, 1759 in the great sickness.

2458: Amos, b. June 28, 1754; d. July 15, 1759 in the great sickness.

: Jonathan. b. Sept. 24, 1756; d. July 7, 1759, in the great sickness.

2459: Eli, b. July 7, 1760; m. Mar. 1, 1782, Hannah Streeter, daughter of Daniel and Mary (Jones) Streeter. She was born in Charlton Dec. 21, 1765, and died there Mar. 21, 1812, ae 46. Eli Wheelock and his father-in-law were both proprietors of Calais, and Mr. Wheelock is known to have been in Calais in the early days, but apparently decided not to permanently locate there. After his death, which occurred Sept. 18, 1797, his widow is alleged to have married Asa Wheelock's son, Amos, and to have lived in Calais for a time, afterwards returning to her old home in Massachusetts. She is buried beside her first husband in the N. Charlton cemetery. The inscription on his gravestone is worthy of preservation, and reads as follows:

"Thy sun is sot, and sable night
Shall hold Thee till the dawn of light,
But when a brother sinks to rest
On the cold Boosum of the west,
His soul ascends its native skies and there exists
Where love and virtue never Dies.
WHEELOCK, thy light shall ever shine,
The LODGE supreme is ever thine."

(246) PAUL (Benjamin; Benjamin; Ralph): born in Mendon, Mass., Jan. 13, 1715/6; m. Abigail Chapin. They located in Charlton, Mass., but Charlton records are silent concerning any children born to them, or as to date of his death, and no gravestones have been found for either. His will (Worcester County Probate, 63782) gives the names of ten of his children and the approximate time of his death as between May 16, 1776, when he made his will, and Apr. 3, 1777, when it was probated.

Mr. Clark, in his history of the Sturbridge Wheelocks, mentions Paul Wheelock, and says there were twelve children, but only ten are mentioned in the will. Widow Abigail died May 11, 1800, leaving a will in which she mentions the same heirs, with the exception of son Silas, and calls her daughter Mary Converse. Her will was dated in 1796.

Paul Wheelock was one of the wealthier men of Charlton. Children (order of birth not known):

2461: Seth, b. about 1752; m. Elizabeth Weld; 2nd, Lucy Johnson.

2462: Paul, b. about 1755; m. Sept. 30, 1779, Beulah Johnson. He was a Revolutionary soldier, enlisting to reinforce the Northern Army in 1777. He died in Spencer in 1840, æ 85, leaving numerous issue.

2463: Adams, b. about 1763; m. Apr. 28, 1785, Lucy Lamb; 2nd, Chloe Green; 3d, Ruth Morey. He died Sept. 27, 1848, æ 83, and is buried in the N. Charlton cemetery with his three wives. He served in the Continental Army in 1780. He had four children, born in Charlton.

2464: Edward, b. ; m. July 4, 1776, Martha Daggett. Five children were born in Charlton, and the family is listed there in 1790, after which we find nothing further concerning them.

2465: Silas, b. ; mentioned in his father's will in 1776, but not mentioned in his mother's in 1796.

2466: John, b. about 1761; m. in Charlton Apr. 26, 1787, Lydia Davis, dau of Ebenezer. John died June 13, 1816, æ 55, and is buried in N. Charlton. One daughter, Sally, married John Spurr, of the Spurr family which had interests in Calais in the early days.

2467: Ruth, b. ; m. in Oxford Oct. 10, 1759, Robert Kalley. She died before 1776, leaving issue.

2468: Mary, b. ; m. Apr. 17, 1770, Zedekiah Drury. Married, 2d, Nov. 5, 1778, Daniel Converse.

2469: Sarah, b. ; m. Oct. 13, 1768, Joseph Thompson.

: Abigail, b. ; m. Jan 10, 1771, Asa Dresser. Two of their descendants, Hon. Sylvester Dresser and Moses D. Dresser, were of the firm of Phillips and Sampson, founders and publishers of the ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

(248) DAVID (Benjamin; Benjamin; Ralph): born in Mendon Jan. 18, 1720/1; m. Lydia White who died Charlton Aug. 1, 1759 in "the great sickness." He m. 2d, in Mendon, Nov. 5, 1760, Mrs. Rachel (Chapin)

Jones, widow of Nathaniel Jones and daughter of Seth Chapin. David Wheelock died in Charlton Jan. 8, 1789 and his widow died there June 3, 1805. Mr. Wheelock left no will, but records of the settlement of his estate are to be found in Worcester Probate Office, file 63644. He was one of the original proprietors of the town of Calais, and his interests in the town were later taken care of by his son Abijah.

Children, all recorded in Charlton, but some of the older ones born before the family moved there from Mendon:

2481: Betty, b. July 17, 1743; m. Aug. 24, 1763, Capt. Abijah Lamb, son of Ebenezer Lamb of Charlton. Both Ebenezer and son Capt. Abijah Lamb were proprietors of Calais, Vt.

2482: Benjamin, b. Apr. 11, 1745; m. July 30, 1768, Elizabeth Thompson. He died, as per gravestone, Sept. 20, 1814. Names of his children can be obtained from Probate records.

Gen Salem Town was one of the proprietors of Calais, and it was at his inn in Charlton that the proprietors frequently met. The building is still standing, a fine specimen of early New England architecture.

(2461): SETH (Paul; Benjamin; Benjamin; Ralph) Born about 1752, he married in Charlton, Apr. 8, 1784, Elizabeth Weld. Married (2) Apr. 9, 1805, Lucy Johnson, who died Sept. 11, 1824. The estate of Seth was administered in 1806.

Seth Wheelock was a Revolutionary soldier from Charlton, responding on the alarm of Apr. 19, 1775, and later was in the Northern Army and the Continental Line. At the time of his enlisting in the Continental Line, 1778, his age was given as 26. His last military service was on the Tiverton alarm in July 1780. In 1790 the family is listed in Charlton as 1-2-2.

24614: Wainy, b. ; m. int. Mar. 19, 1815, to Jonas Sibley of Spencer. She often visited her brother Welcome in Calais, and was well known to the older people of the town. The late Joshua Dana of Calais reported her as being the most beautiful woman he had ever seen.

Descendants of Asa Wheelock, of Calais

(5) ASA (Jonathan; Benjamin; Benjamin; Ralph): born in Charlton, Mass., Oct. 2, 1741; m. in Charlton Dec. 8, 1763, Rachel Drury, dau. of John and Susannah (Goddard) Drury. She was born Feb. 13, 1744/5, and died in Montpelier, Vt., Apr. 2, 1830, æ 85. He died March, 1816, as per private record kept by his brother Peter.

Asa Wheelock was sergeant in Capt. Davis' Co., Col. Ebenezer Larned's regt., which marched from Charlton to Roxbury on the alarm of Apr. 19, 1775, and also sergeant in Capt. Abijah Lamb's Co., Col. Jonathan Holman's regt., which marched to Providence on an alarm in Dec. 1776.

After the usual custom of spending one or two summers in Calais in making preparations for settlement, he brought his family to town probably in the summer of 1789, and is believed to have located in lot No. 14 of the second division, although title to his ownership is not shown in Calais records. He was an officer of the town at its organization in 1795, and selectman in 1796. Both Mr. and Mrs Wheelock are supposed to have been buried in the old cemetery on East Hill in Calais, but there are no gravestones. The Wheelock Family Association, in cooperation with the D. A. R., erected a modest marker at his supposed grave in 1935.

: Rhoda, b. Mar. 28, 1765 (no further record is found).

51: Martha, b. Dec. 9, 1766; m. David Goodell.

57: Huldah, b. Mar. 1780; m. Aaron Bliss.

58: Asa, b. ; he is probably the Asa of Cape Vincent, Jefferson Co., N. Y.

59: Jared: b. Aug. 5, 1785; m. Mary Davis.

(51) MARTHA WHEELOCK (Asa). Born in Charlton, Mass., Dec. 9, 1766 (VR); married in Charlton Nov. 1, 1786, David Goodell, who was a son of Zachariah and Experience Goodell of Charlton. David is listed as a Revolutionary soldier, but there are so many of that name in the vicinity of Charlton that it is difficult to give his war record. His family is not listed in Charlton in the census of 1790, so he evidently had removed from that town previously. Where he was living just previous to coming to Calais is hard to determine, but on Feb. 22, 1794, he bought of Jennison Wheelock for $25. fifty-six acres of land in the south part of lot No. 13, in the 2nd division, where he established a homestead. In the early Calais records David Goodell is called "Reverend."

Children (Goodell), recorded in Calais, bk 1, p.18:

511: Pamelia, b. ,June 18, 1787; m. int. July 10, 1803, to Asaph King.

514: Orange, b. Nov. 30, 1795.

515: Tamar, b. Oct. 9, 1801; m. Oct. 30, 1825, Jason Chase, son of John. Jason died Mar. 22, 1843. She died Oct. 31, 1883. Both are buried in Robinson cemetery in Calais.

(52): GODDARD (Asa): born in Charlton, Mass., Sept. 25, 1768; m. Eleanor, dau. of Silas Hathaway. She died Dec. 29, 1828. June 6, 1799 he bought at vendue the easterly part of lot No. 45 of the 2d division and soon began a settlement there. This place he sold Mar. 31, 1800 to Caleb Mitchell, and moved back to East Hill in Calais to the place where his brother-in-law, David Goodell, had previously lived. April 29, 1814 Elnathan Hathaway, as administrator of his estate, conveyed to Amos Wheelock thirty acres of land in lot 14, from which we conclude that Goddard did not live to an advanced age. A private record shows his death as in 1814, aged 45. Children:

521: Polly, b. Aug. 20, 1796; m. Jan. 6, 1822, Daniel Parsons Jr. of Montpelier.

522: Lovicy, b. Aug. 20, 1798; d. Aug. 13, 1800 (or 1806) as per gravestone in East Hill cemetery.

523: John, b. May 20, 1799; m. Laura Washburn.

524: Alden, b. June 8, 1801.

525: Peter Sleeman, b. ; m. Frances M. Hall.

526: Alma (?)

(53): JENNISON (Asa): born Charlton, Mass., May 31, 1770; m. Molly, dau. of Benjamin and Betsey Wells, who was born Jan. 26, 1774 and died Jan.19, 1836. He died Feb. 25, 1813.

Land records showing his first purchase of land in Calais are not on file, but he is known to have acquired a farm in lot 13 of the 2d division of lands which farm is still in the ownership of his descendants. He was elected haywarden at the first town meeting in 1795, and was highway surveyor in 1798. In 1811 there were six children attending school from this family in the East district.

Children (recorded in Calais, bk 1, p. 229):

531: Brittain, b. Apr. 7, 1796; m. Phebe Batchelder.

532: Cynthia, b. May 2, 1798; d. July 23, 1863.

533: Fanny, b. Mar. 8, 1800; m. Perry Marsh.

538: Jacob, b. May 13, 1811; d. Apr. 8, 1813.

(54): AMOS (Asa): born in Charlton, Mass., March 5, 1772. The records of Charlton show the marriage of Amos Wheelock and Hannah Wheelock as having occurred Feb. 24, 1799, and the Wight genealogy declares that she was the widow of Eli Wheelock, and that after her marriage she and Amos lived briefly in Calais, although no record of her is found in Calais. She died Mar. 21, 1812, aged 46, and is buried beside her first husband, Eli Wheelock, in Charlton.

Amos was taxed in Calais in 1805, and was living in town as late as 1835. He appears to have associated with his brothers in running a still on "Still Brook" near the Jennison Wheelock place. No record of any family has been found.

(55): MARY WHEELOCK (Asa): date of birth unknown. She was married in Berlin, Vt., Dec. 8, 1793, to Winslow Pope, at which time her residence was given as Calais, Vt. His ancestry is unknown, but he was probably of the Pope family of Rochester, Mass.

Nov. 14, 1795 he purchased of Samuel Twiss of Calais fifty acres of land in lot 52 of the 2d division in Calais, and is supposed to have lived there for about eight years, selling to Holden Wilbur Jan. 13, 1803, since which time nothing further is known of the Pope family in Calais. In later years there was a Luna Pope who came to Calais from Lower Canada and lived in the village of "Moscow" who is thought by some of the older people to have been a son of Winslow, but definite proof is lacking. The following children (Pope) are of record in Calais, bk 1, p. 14.:

551: Salem, b. Jan. 3, 1795.

552: Rhoda, b. Jan. 7, 1796.

553: Rachel, b. Sept. 3, 1797.

554: Leonard, b. Nov. 14, 1799.

(56): SALEM (Asa): date of birth unknown; m. Abigail McKnight, dau. of Thomas and Abigail of Montpelier, Vt. He was elected haywarden in Calais in 1797 but is not mentioned in the census of 1800, although he is known to have lived in the vicinity of Calais for several years after that date. His last land sale in Calais was a part of lot 14, 2d division, on Mar. 4, 1828 to Aaron Lilley. We are informed by a descendant that about 1810-12 Salem Wheelock migrated from Vermont to some unknown place in Herkimer County, N. Y., where he lived for several years, later moving to Auburn, N. Y., where he died (gravestone record) in 1853, æ 82. While living in Auburn he bought and sold land, deeds being signed by wife Abigail. The name of his daughter Elvira is also affixed to certain deeds, which proves him to be the same Salem as the Calais man of that name. Children (five recorded in Calais, three others born elsewhere.):

561: Lucy, b. Apr. 4, 1799; m. (per Chapin Geneal.) John Chapin, son of Roderick.

562: Eli, b. Oct. 8, 1801.

563: Abigail, b. July 22, 1804.

564: Fanny, b. Jan. 10, 1805 (perhaps 1806).

They were the parents of eight children, but only the names of three are given, viz., Augusta, born 1846, and was living in 1936 aged 90; Judson, b. 1856, who m. Julia O'Brien, and died in 1931; Amanda m. Chas. Stuart. Information furnished by Miss Winifred Sant, g.-daughter of Judson Wheelock.

(57): HULDAH WHEELOCK (Asa); born Mar. 1780, as per gravestone record; m. in Calais Mar. 29, 1796, Aaron Bliss (Noah; Daniel; Jonathan[2]; Thomas). He was born probably in Rehoboth, Mass., about 1768. and died in Calais Aug. 19, 1851. She died Jan. 18, 1863. Both are buried in East Calais cemetery.

June 4, 1794 Aaron Bliss bought of Peter Sleeman (an original proprietor of Calais) lot No. 5, of the 2d division, and this place soon became their homestead. He was elected lister and haywarden at the organization of the town in 1795, and later held other town offices. Children (born in Calais and, to 1809, recorded in bk 1, p. 24 (Bliss):

571: Amanda Augusta, b. Nov. 7, 1798; m. Samuel Wheeler.

No documentary evidence has been discovered to prove that this Asa was son of Asa of Calais, yet the weight of circumstantial evidence appears to indicate that he was. The family lived at Cape Vincent, N. Y. for many years. He was ensign and sergeant in the War of 1812 from Cape Vincent. Late in life, or in 1853, the family moved to Illinois, where he died at the home of his son Oscar, near Apple River, Feb. 24, 1858, æ 75, and is buried in Morseville cemetery three miles southeast of Stockton, Ill. Mrs. Wheelock resided in Stockton until 1882 when she removed to Iowa to be with her daughter, Mrs. Biddleman, and died at Mrs. Biddleman's home in Atlantic, Iowa, in 1890 or '91, æ 94. She was a member of the Methodist Church over fifty years. Buried at Atlantic.

George Alfred Wheelock

Under the caption "AMATEUR ACTOR DIED DURING PERFORMANCE," the Barre Daily Times of Monday Oct. 24, 1938 reports as follows:

"George A. Wheelock, 67, respected East Calais farmer, died very suddenly about 10 o'clock Saturday night while appearing with the Wheelock Players at the Woman's Club auditorium in Montpelier.

"In the play Mr. Wheelock appeared as 'Gran'ther Hill', a kindly old war veteran of 82 years, in Uncle Lisha's Shop, a dramatization from one of Rowland Robinson's books. He had completed his part of the play, and was backstage, still in make-up for the bow after the final curtain, when stricken. He had given a splendid characterization during the play."

The Rev. Mary Andrews Conner, a close friend of the family, who officiated at the funeral, has contributed the following appreciation:

"For a stranger to enter a home for a brief sojourn, remain nine weeks, and leave in the consciousness that an ideal home had been found, and a real friendship had been established, is an event only for the most privileged. The spirit-head of this home was George Wheelock and his life-companion wife. If there were such unity in most marriages, the divorce courts would be relics of the dark ages. An ideal home with none of the ordinary luxuries, that people buy, but the luxury of everyday happy companionship, and the elegance, not of furnishings, but of the natural unfolding of the human spirit.

George Wheelock was a plain farmer, an indefatigable worker, up at four o'clock, out spraying potatoes, hoeing in his garden, all preparatory to a hard day in the hay-field, milking cows, and doing the numerous chores necessary on a farm. But he always had time to be happy at his meals and to make every one at the table feel the same. A jolly story was always relished. He had time to enjoy good poetry read to him; to learn nature's secrets in the woods; to see the northern lights, which most persons miss; to learn bit by bit the fascination of the stars. He had time to develop comradeship with his children, and he was never too tired or overworked, but that Sunday saw him and his family off to church. He read sufficiently to be interested and active in community and state welfare; served his town enthusiastically in the State legislature; and when he thought he saw in the Townsend Plan relief from the bad deal farmers had been getting, he became heart and soul for it. He made friends everywhere, for people felt the genuineness of his personality.

Then what a fitting exit he made: his day's work finished, his evening chores done, he was off in great glee to Montpelier to play 'Gran'ther Hill' with his fellow players. Happy in this role, he made his audience happy too. Amid applause the curtain rang down on the last scene, and George Wheelock had withdrawn to take his part in the drama of another life."

Descendants of

Azubah Wheelock Daggett

(6) [2455 of Early Generations]: AZUBAH WHEELOCK (Jonathan; Benjamin; Benjamin; Ralph); born in Charlton. Mass., Jan. 15, 1746; m. there June 30, 1774, David Daggett, son of Thomas. He was born in 1752, enlisted in the army in the Revolutionary War, and died in the service May 14, 1777. After Mr. Daggett's death. Azubah appears to have been aided by her brother, Peter Wheelock, who assisted in bringing up the two children, both of whom came to Calais with his family. Azubah was in Calais at times after the settlement in 1789, and owned various parcels of real estate, but as far as known never had a definite residence here. Her death date, or whether she ever married again, has not been learned. Children—born in Charlton, as per VR (Daggett):

61: Lyman, b. Aug. 22, 1775; m. Sarah W. Hathaway.

62: David, b. Jan. 31, 1776; m.(1) Hannah Moffett. (2) Elizabeth Tobey.

Note: There appears to be an error in birth dates of one of above children; but which is correct, and which is wrong, is unknown.

(61): LYMAN DAGGETT (Azubah Wheelock); born in Charlton, Mass., (per VR) Aug. 22, 1775; m. in Calais, Dec. 5, 1806, Sarah West Hathaway, daughter of Silas. She born in New Bedford, Mass., Feb. 22, 1785, and died Aug. 31, 1872. He died Apr. 30, 1870. Both buried in North Montpelier cemetery.

Lyman Daggett, after the death of his father, in the Revolutionary War, was placed in the family of his uncle, Peter Wheelock, and doubtless came to Calais with that family in 1789. After his marriage he located on a farm in the southern part of the town where his descendants are still living. Children—from his family bible, now owned by Mrs. Geo. Wheelock. (Daggett):

611: Catherine H., b. Aug. 31, 1807; m. Loam Hathaway.

612: Amanda C., b. Oct. 22, 1810; m. Chester Bugbee.

613: Pardon, b. Jan. 14, 1818; d. Apr. 21, 1825. He is buried in East Hill cemetery, Calais.

Note: The Hathaway family of Calais has an interesting Mayflower lineage which is worthy of preservation, and which follows:

Francis Cooke, a native of Canterbury, England, went to Holland with the Pilgrims, and from there in 1620 came to America in the ship Mayflower, with son John, leaving the remainder of his family in England to follow, which they did in 1623.

Richard Warren was another Mayflower Pilgrim who came to America in 1620, leaving his wife and children to follow in the next ship. Among his children was a daughter Sarah, who after reaching Plymouth, married John Cooke, son of Francis (above).

John Cooke and wife, Sarah Warren, later lived in Dartmouth, Mass., where he died 1695, one of the very last survivors of the Mayflower Pilgrims. They were the parents of a daughter, Sarah Cooke, who married Arthur Hathaway. Arthur Hathaway and wife Sarah Cooke were the parents of Jonathan Hathaway, born about 1671 (as he died Sept. 17, 1727 in his 56th year) and who married Dec. 31, 1701, Susanna Pope. Jonathan Hathaway and his wife Susanna were the parents of Elnathan Hathaway, born Dartmouth, Mass., Jan 16, 1720, who married Esther Spooner. Elnathan Hathaway and wife Esther were the parents of Silas Hathaway, born in Dartmouth, Mass., June 22, 1742, who married Aug. 9, 1767, Mary Griffeth of Rochester, Mass. Silas and wife came to Calais with the following children: Elnathan, Esther, Thomas, Eleanor, Asa, Catherine and Sarah W. Of these, Eleanor, born June 25, 1775, m. Goddard Wheelock (see No. 52, p. 25), and Sarah W., born Feb. 22, 1785, m. Lyman Daggett. Thus the descendants of these two families shown in this book, as well as all the Hathaways of Calais, are descendants of three Mayflower Pilgrims, viz: Richard Warren, Francis Cooke and John Cooke.

(62): DAVID DAGGETT (Azubah Wheelock); born in Charlton, Mass. (per printed VR) Jan. 31, 1776. If he came to Calais with his uncle Peter Wheelock, he must heve returned to his native town, because he was married Nov. 29, 1798 to Hannah Moffett of Oxford, Mass. She died in Calais Jan. 31, 1810. ALMA DAVIS LEONARD

Alma Davis Leonard

A tribute paid by Mrs. Nora (Mower) Gallagher at the Wheelock Reunion held at East Calais Sept. 5, 1936.

WHEN the news came last year of the death of Alma D. Leonard, it hardly seemed to me that we could hold that meeting at all—she was such a vital part of our organization. We paid our silent tribute of honor and remembrance at that time. But as we are gathered here, at her former home today, where she would so gladly welcome us, it seems a fitting time and place to express something of our appreciation and affection for this greatly loved and valued member of our family.

She was a prime mover in the founding of this Association, and up to the time of her death represented the best traditions of the family. No word of mine—nor of any one—could add to or detract from the value and significance, or the beauty and dignity of her life. We all know it—she lived here among us for eighty-one years, and it was an open book without blemish—a life of upright constant service to this town—and indeed to this state. The same vision rises before us all—not as she was when her body had become too weak to support her spirit, but as we always have known her—strong character, clear good sense, and humor written plainly upon her face. If any of us were asked to name her outstanding qualities, I think they would be given something in this order: sound judgment, integrity, courage—she dared to have a purpose and to make it known—sincerity, honor, great mental capacity, but also great simplicity and modesty.

Plain living and high thinking were her chosen way of life. She loved Vermont and this town, and served both well. For most of her active life since childhood she taught school, mostly in this town and village (East Calais)—and for so many terms that even she lost count of them–thus impressing three generations of children, with her clear good sense and high ideals. She has often been called the best teacher the town ever produced, and I think no one ever disputed it. She also served many years as superintendent of schools. I was a pupil of hers, and I have never forgotten how she explained cube root to me. Her interests were many, but religion, education and history were surely her chief ones.

Alma Leonard became an authority on the history of Calais, and on the genealogy of the early settlers of the town. She drew a map of all the roads of the town, from the first, and also all the lots in town, with the original owners. It was the dream of her life to write a history of Calais, and she had what would seem sufficient material for it prepared, but a poem written by her at seventy-three voices her disappointment and fear that growing physical weakness might prevent her finishing it—as it did.

You all know her intense interest in the Wheelock family. We never would have thought we could spare her, but she has left us a warm memory and a great example.

Note

[For inclusion in THe WHEELOCK FAMILY OF CALAIS, by Marcus Warren Waite, 1940]

APPRECIATION and thanks from both author and publisher are due to The Women's Club of Montpelier, Vt., for the donation of $25.00 which financed the photo-engraving and memorial sketch of George A. Wheelock in this book. This was done by them as a tribute to the local actor who died suddenly after performing his part in the drama staged under their auspices (see pages 58-9).

Appreciation is gratefully acknowledged also to Miss Carrie Wheelock, Mrs. Nora Gallagher, Mrs. Florence Waite, Miss Ruth Bliss, H. V. Wheelock, and Edward T. Wheelock, for their interest in financing other photo-engravings for the book.
